SPONSORED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA SCHOOL OF LAW

July 29, 2010

Dear Confirmed GAMTI Teams:

On behalf of everyone at Virginia Mock Trial—as well as our sponsors at the University of Virginia School of Law—thanks again for joining us for GAMTI 2010! All rounds will be held once again at the H. Carl Moultrie Courthouse at 500 Indiana Avenue NW in downtown Washington, DC.

What's in here:

- A tournament schedule;
- The Rules and Policies for Use of the Moultrie Courthouse and an acknowledgment form that must be completed by a captain of each team as well as a coach for every program that has one;
- Information about the challenge format;
- A map showing food and parking options near the Moultrie Courthouse;
- Contact info for various places from which you can pre-order lunch; and
- Information about our two official tournament hotels, and directions between the hotels and the courthouse;

Registration Fee: $250

We understand that this is an unusually high registration fee and an increase over last year. Unfortunately, running a tournament in a city like Washington DC isn't cheap, and the Moultrie Courthouse imposes an access fee that will by itself substantially exceed the total amount of even this increased set of fees. That said, we believe very strongly that GAMTI belongs in a state-of-the-art courthouse and our outside sponsors will help ensure that we can continue to provide the kind of experience that people have come to expect from GAMTI---including our signature crystal trophies and pewter individual awards. Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions about the registration fee or anything else GAMTI-related.

Deadlines: (All deadlines explained in more detail in this packet or the initial invitation)

August 27: Deadline for informing us if you will not be able to meet the deadline for receiving your registration check.

September 10: Deadline for us to receive your registration check. Checks should be made out to “Collegiate Mock Trial at the University of Virginia” and mailed to “Collegiate Mock Trial at the University of Virginia; c/o Professor Toby Heytens; 580 Massie Road; Charlottesville, VA 22903.” Registering late will trigger a $50 late fee.

September 24: Final registration deadline. After this date, we will offer the spot of any program that has not paid its fee to a team on the waitlist.

October 4: Last day to obtain our special rate at the Washington Suites (subject to availability).

October 5: Last day to obtain our special rate at the Red Roof Inn (subject to availability).

Please feel free to shoot either of us an email if you have any questions. We also encourage you to visit our tournament website—www.virginiamocktrial.org/gamti/gamti.php. We look forward to seeing you in November!

Yours truly,

RULES AND POLICIES FOR USE OF THE MOULTRIE COURTHOUSE

GAMTI is one of very few invitationals where all rounds are held in courtrooms. We no longer have use of our previous courthouse in part because some teams disregarded the terms of use Fall of 2008. This is only our second time at the Moultrie Courthouse, and our future ability to use the courthouse is not assured.

In general

- Food and drinks other than plain bottled water may be consumed in the designated space in the second and third floor atriums, but only in that area. The atrium is quickly and easily reached from all courtrooms. All food and non-water drinks must be stored in sealed containers at all other times. A container is “sealed” only if it could be flipped over and shaken without leaking.
- We will supply large cardboard trash bins that will be placed in the atrium and hallways. No trash may be placed in any other trashcans, including those in the courtrooms.

Courtrooms

When the last person leaves after a round, there should be nothing to indicate anyone was there. In particular:

- No food or drink of any kind (including bottled water) may be brought into the courtrooms themselves except in fully sealed containers. Take-out boxes and to-go coffee cups do not qualify. Sealed food and beverage containers must be stored where they are not accessible during the round.
- We will replace the judges’ personal chairs with non-adjustable ones before the tournament, and presiding judges must use the one provided. No one -- including volunteer judges -- may sit in, touch, or adjust the judge’s personal chair. The courthouse staff has specifically told us that judge can become extremely angry if they come in on Monday to find that their personal chair have adjusted to someone else’s dimensions.
- Participants have use of the counsel tables, the bench, and the rest of the courtroom only as long as they do not move anything already in place and return all chairs to their original position. Participants must not touch or move podiums, computers or other electronic equipment (including microphones), papers or other documents that may be in the courtroom, or easels or exhibits. This rule applies regardless of whether any such items are in the way or will make the round more uncomfortable or difficult for the competitors and regardless of anything a volunteer “judge” may say or do to the contrary. If any questions arise, participants must consult the Faculty Tournament Director.
- The chairs at counsel table must be reset precisely as they were before a team exits the courtroom at the end of each trial round.
- No one may place papers or other trash inside the courtroom trash cans. All such items should be removed from the courtroom and placed them in the provided cardboard trash bins in the hall.

Strict adherence to all rules and policies set forth in this memo is essential. Things that may seem small to us—such as a failure to return all chairs at counsel table to their original positions before leaving the courtroom—are rarely viewed that way by the people who work in these courtrooms and will arrive on Monday with the expectation that things will be precisely as they left them on Friday.

The next page contains a form that must be completed by each team’s captain and by a coach for any team that has one. No team will be permitted to compete until we have received its form.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND ACCEPTANCE OF RESPONSIBILITY

I am the captain/coach of the team indicated below.

I acknowledge that I have read and understand the “Rules and Policies for Use of the Moultrie Courthouse.”

I acknowledge that I have a responsibility to ask questions if I believe that anything is unclear and always to err on the side of caution.

I acknowledge that it is my personal responsibility to ensure that all of the participants in any round in which my team competes comply with these Rules. I understand that this obligation applies not only to myself and the student members on my team, but also includes the members of the teams against which we will be competing, spectators (whether affiliated with my team or not), volunteer judges, and coaches.

I understand that I must immediately report any violations of those Rules to the Faculty Tournament Director and that failure to do so will be deemed a violation of those Rules.

I understand that the tournament hosts will be taking photographs of the courtrooms before the tournament and will be checking the courtrooms throughout the weekend to ensure strict compliance with those Rules.

I understand that failure to comply with any of these obligations will result in sanctions to be determined in the sole discretion of the Faculty Tournament Director. I understand that those sanctions may include, but are not limited to, being required to pay for any cleaning expenses. I also understand that any violations may jeopardize my program’s future ability to attend this tournament in the future.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE CHALLENGE FORMAT

As in past years, we will be pairing the first round by a challenge format. And, like last year, we will be doing challenges at the opening ceremonies. The challenge order will be defending GAMTI champion, followed by defending national champion, followed by AMTA bonus bid ranking, top down. (For the current rankings, go the AMTA page (www.collegemocktrial.org), click “Mock Trial” and then “Tabulation,” and scroll down.) The two UVA teams will be placed at the end of the challenge order but will be available to be challenged. Teams that are challenged will be entitled to pick their side, except that a Virginia team will defer to coin toss instead of picking their side. No passes will be allowed.

A team that is not present at the opening ceremonies or otherwise fails to exercise its challenge in a timely fashion will be moved to the end of the challenge order. Such a team will not be entitled to choose its side; instead, the team that challenges such a team will also be able to choose its side.

Here is the current challenge order:

- NYU
- Harvard
- Northwood
- Miami
- Iowa
- UCLA
- Columbia
- Michigan
- George Washington
- Furman
- Yale
- Duke
- Cornell
- Penn
- Washington & Lee
- Loyola-Chicago
- Berkeley
- Northwestern
- Georgia
- Bellarmino

HOTEL OPTIONS

We have secured group rates at two hotels.

The Washington Suites

As in the past, we have secured a group rate at the Washington Suites at 100 South Reynolds Street in Alexandria, Virginia. The Washington Suites offers enormous suites (it was previously an apartment complex), and is a 15-20 minute drive from the courthouse. This year, the rates will be $129 plus tax per night for triple/quadruple occupancy rooms and $139 plus tax per night for a five person occupancy suite, which includes free on-site parking, a continental breakfast, and complementary high-speed internet access (except in the lobby, you'll need a cable but they provide them.) To secure these rates, you must make your reservations no later than Monday, October 4 and you must do so using the official reservation form. A copy of the registration form is contained in this packet, is attached separately, and is available at our tournament website: <http://www.virginiamocktrial.org/gamti/gamti.php>

The Red Roof Inn

For teams that want to stay downtown, we have also obtained a block of rooms at the Red Roof Inn in the heart of downtown D.C. The Red Roof is a more conventional hotel located .7 miles from the courthouse (a 10-15 minute walk) and less than two blocks from a Metro stop that will bring you within a block and a half of the courthouse. It is also two blocks from the Verizon Center (where the Wizards and Capitals play) and literally dozens of restaurants. The rate is $119 plus tax per night, up to four people per room. We have reserved a limited number of rooms, which will be allocated first come, first serve. You must call no later than Tuesday, October 5 to obtain the rate and mention our group code—b254AMTABM—when you call. The contact information for the Red Roof Inn is contained later in this packet and is also available at our tournament website: <http://www.virginiamocktrial.org/gamti/gamti.php>. Please note that the Red Roof Inn does not offer complementary internet access.

***

In addition to these options, the DC metro area in general—and the downtown area around courthouse in particular—has a huge number of hotels that are easily searchable on all manner of travel websites. The courthouse's street address is 500 Indiana Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20001.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE RED ROOF INN

Address: 500 H St NW; Washington, DC 20001

Telephone: (202) 289-5959

Rate: $119 per room per night plus tax (up to 4 people per room). Wireless internet access costs $9.95 per day.

Website: <http://www.redroof.com>. Enter "254" in "Inn #" field and then click "Inn Details"*

*Note: You cannot obtain our special tournament rate over the website. You must call the hotel and mention our confirmation code -- b254AMTABM - when you call. Rooms are subject to availability reservations must be made no later than Tuesday, October 5.

If you will be flying: We strongly recommend flying into Ronald Reagan National Airport (DCA) (4.6 miles) rather than Washington-Dulles (IAD) (25.9 miles) or Baltimore-Washington International (BWI) (30.0 miles). Among other things, you can take the Metrorail from Reagan to within two blocks from the hotel on Metro's Yellow line. The ride from the airport to Gallery Place takes about 15 minutes and currently costs $1.95 per person. Cab service and Super Shuttle Service is also available from all airports. Because the courthouse is located extremely close to the Red Roof Inn -- and because you will have to pay for parking -- we recommend that you do not rent cars if you fly into Reagan and stay at the Red Roof Inn.

If you will have cars: You will likely be required to pay for parking. The Red Roof Inn offers parking at a rate of $20 per day. Starting at some point Friday evening, there should be some street parking in the area and there should be quite a lot starting Sunday morning because there are far fewer parking restrictions on Sundays than Saturdays. The map that shows dining options near the courthouse also contains information about parking in the area south and east of the Red Roof Inn. Make sure to check the signs yourself, because parking rules may have changed.

Founded by Thomas Jefferson in 1819, the University of Virginia School of Law is a world-renowned training ground for distinguished lawyers and public servants.

Consistently ranked among the top law schools in the nation, Virginia has educated generations of lawyers, instilling in them a commitment to leadership, integrity and community service. A faculty of nationally acclaimed experts in their fields and outstanding teachers lead Virginia's students to appreciate the power of law to influence political, social and cultural life.

Virginia is justly famous for its collegial environment that bonds students and faculty, and student satisfaction is consistently cited as among the highest in American law schools. Students share their experiences in a cooperative spirit, both in and out of the classroom, building a network that lasts well beyond their three years here.

Virginia has a national reputation for producing highly skilled lawyers with a healthy combination of legal acuity and personal balance. American Lawyer magazine identified Virginia as one of only two law schools in the country with graduates practicing in each of the nation's top 100 law firms.

Located in Charlottesville, the Law School is about two hours from Washington, D.C. The town offers a community in which students can relax, find plentiful entertainment and appreciate abundant natural beauty to balance the intense rigors of law study.
